

Elizabeth the Second

Queen Of New Zealand and of Her Other Realms and Territories

Requests the pleasure of your company at the

*Annual Celebration of the Acquisition of New Zealand by Queen Wikitoria in 1840
(a/k/a Waitangi Day)*

*As is customary, the definitive celebration of this event will take place at the residence of Her
Trusted Servants Amelia and Roger, namely 309 Westmont Ave in the Crown's one time
Borough of Haddonfield, New Jersey*

The event is on

Saturday the 20th of February 2010.

It will be graced by the patronage of

Edward, coming from Our Former Protectorate of Hawaii for the occasion,

Ashley from the District of Columbia, and also Seymour, Carolyne, Philip, Charlotte and In Utero from Philadelphia, onetime Capital of Our Royal Province.

Regrettably the New Zealand and London contingents will be absent this year.

We hereby decree that the festivities shall commence at 7 pm.

The usual food and beverage shall be available.

Singing shall take place about 8.15.

Anyone who does not wish to sing should stay home, or even out in the freezing cold some place, until about 9 pm when even rowdies and rude ones who interrupt shall be welcome.

Black tie and other fancy dress required

(Jaonga Glass prizes for the best)
